

Kingston information and Advice Alliance

To enable the future provision of sustainable and robust Information and Advice Services in Kingston upon Thames

Overall Aim

To improve coordination of information and advice in order to deliver comprehensive joined up service locally

To raise the awareness about the importance of high quality advice and best practice

To enable the Alliance to contribute towards influencing strategic development in the local advice sector

Specific Aims

To map who is doing what in the information and advice sector in Kingston

To support agencies to work together

To signpost network members to sources of information and support about relevant quality standards and capacity building assistance

To provide the information for the network members on how to get involved on a strategic level

Objectives