

Kingston Information and Advice Alliance

Outcomes

Specific Aim	Outputs	Outcomes
To improve coordination of information and advice in order to deliver comprehensive joined up service locally	Kiaa website will feature an overarching chart (at the level appropriate for the network) containing the information on who does what in the information and advice sector in Kingston	Network members are given tools to better coordinate information and advice in Kingston
To raise the awareness about the importance of high quality advice and best practice	Information on the Kiaa's website about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• New quality standards</li> <li>• Capacity building support</li> <li>• Monitoring and evaluation</li> </ul>	Network members have access to information and support they need about quality standards and best practice
To enable the Alliance to contribute towards influencing strategic development in the local advice sector	Information on Kiaa website on all Kingston Strategic Partnership Boards, their leaders and how to get involved	Network members are given an opportunity to be better represented on a strategic level in Kingston